Jay H. Warren. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lyon of Waterbury Center were also Landlord Randall always looks well to the comfort and pleasure of his guests, which accounts in a good measure for the growing popularity of The Randall. Last Sunday a number of the gentlemen guests, with a few invited friends were given a Tally-ho ride in C. L. Gates' new coach.

The hand concert and ice cream social given by the S. of V. and Morrisville band in Academy Park last tended on account of the chilly

The August clearance sale now in progress at Geo. P. Drown & Co's is the most satisfactory in the history of this concern. Satisfactory to their customers because of the big bargains they are procuring and satisfactory to the firm because they are disposing of their summer goods and making room for the new fall goods on the way. If you want the most for your money don't fail to look over their list of attractions.
They will refund your money if you say so.

Mrs. W. W. Peck, who has been passing the summer with her family in Somerset, has been critically ill for the past two weeks, suffering from an attack of acute Bright's disease, aggravated by a heart trouble. Dr. C.
Ruble, the family physician, was called there last Wednesday and was accompanied by Mrs. Rubie, who is caring for Mrs. Peck. The doctor came home yesterday noon and returned to Somerset to-day. He stated that, although the patient was in a very critical condition, he had great hopes of her recovery.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Rubie gave a very pleasant party last evening at the N. E. O. P. hall in honor of their daughters, Misses Ednah and Emily Ruble. In the absence of Mrs.
Ruble, who is caring for Mrs. Peck at Somerset, Mrs. Geo. Powers assisted Dr. Rubie and daughters on the reception committee. About one hundred guests were present and dancing was indulged in until about 12:30. Other amusements were furnished and those present pronounced the occasion one of the most enjoy-

Warren last Wednesday and arrived here Saturday. They went to Hyde Park Tuesday for a short visit to his old home. A number of the friends of the newly married couple from this place and Hyde Park gave them a serenade Saturday night, which by the co-operation of Perley and wife company was invited in and ice cream and cake were served and a pleasant social hour passed.

wing, Minn., who have been visiting ant visit among their eastern friends.

S. N. Palmer and wife, M. N. Cutler and wife, Charles Brown, wife and son, H. F. Richardson and Mrs. Nella Winters visited Lake Mansfield recently, where a picnic dinner was enjoyed. They were much impressed with the grand scenery of the Lake and Mountain and report the trip a decidedly pleasant one.

Mrs. E. J. Hall has sold to Charles Edwards the land on the north side of Laporte road opposite the latter's home and the land will become a part of his farm. It will be remembered that Dr. Hall purchased the land with the idea of establishing a sanitarium upon the site, and had he lived the project would doubtless have been realized.

Mrs. M. J. Greene and children, of Worcester, Mass., who have been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Norton, went to Waterbury Monday and after visiting there a few days will return to their home. Little Marian Greene will remain with her aunt, Mrs. W. R.
Nicholson until October, when she will be accompanied to Worcester by Mrs. Norton.

The What Comedy Company, which appears in Town Hall, Morrisville, for three nights beginning with tomorrow evening is under the management of Woodley & Strong, who played leading parts in the Harries-Meyers Company here a few months since. It will be remembered that these gentlemen were recently married in West Burke. Mrs. Strong has a part in the cast and Mrs. Woodley is the troupe's pianist. The company give a very good entertainment.

A disgusting amount of drunkenness was in evidence in Morrisville last Saturday and seven arrests were made by the local officers. Those arrested were Bert Lampher of Hyde Park, George Switzer, Perley Hartshorn, Geo. Styles, Morrisstown, Chauncey Town of Stowe and Neil Baker and Ed Adams of Eden. The cases were all prosecuted by States Attorney Bicknell in the office of Town Clerk Niles, before Justice George Dillingham of Johnson. Baker and Adams of Eden were tried Saturday night and paid the usual fine for the first offence. The other five were tried Monday morning. Towne and Styles paid the usual fine and the other three took the alternate sen-

Prof. William McDonald, professor of history in Brown University, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gled at the Campbell home on Congress street. This is Prof. McDonald's first visit to Morrisville. He is delighted with the beauty of the valley and the village. He accompanied the Shaw party to Stowe.

The Sautelle circus, which showed in Morrisville last Saturday drew the usual large and highly interesting crowd of people to town, all sorts and conditions being represented in a more or less striking manner. The show as a whole did not come up to expectations. There were some very good features, among them being the band orchestra, the trained animals, and the athletic and contortionist performances. An unavoidable delay was caused in the arrival of the train by the derailing of an engine in the Barre yard and it did not reach here until nearly 9:30. Consequently the street parade was several hours late.

Lamoille Valley Fair.

The Lamoille Valley Fair comes this year Sept. 22, 23 and 24. Handsome lithograph posters already adorn the fences, bridges etc., throughout the county. The management Watch for further notices in this paper.

evening at "The Pines," the charm-

Shaw, Secretary of the Treasury, Hon. and Mrs. Charles S. Gled, of Mrs. Knight, of Illinois and Mr. Hal Gaylord, manager of the Kansas City

The home friends present were Ex

Knight of Hyde Park, Secretary of State, F. G. Fleetwood, and his mother Mrs. Gled, Mr. and Mrs. C. H.
Slocum and Ex-Governor Geo. W.
Hendee. Most of those from a distance were, like Secretary Shaw, former Vermonters, here to renew old ties. There was much conversation on "old home" topics and some spirited interchange of views on live public questions by the distinguished gentlemen present. Mrs. Charles Gled delighted the company with several beautiful selections on the piano.

The gathering was most keenly enjoyed by all present, and serves as an excellent illustration of the steady growing cosmopolitan character of Vermont's social circles.

Morrisville Butter Market.
